

Herald of Good TIDINGS

“Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, fear not; say to the cities of Judah, ‘Behold your God!’”
Isaiah 40:9

Leaders

As we start February we will have meetings of new committees. With the addition of new people, the committees will change. People will bring new concerns or gifts to bear on the issues and responsibilities of the committees. Early in the life of the church the disciples called on help from the brethren. About these helpers they said,

“It would not be right for us to neglect the ministry of the word of God in order to wait on tables. Brothers and sisters, choose seven men from among you who are known to be full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will turn this responsibility over to them and will give our attention to prayer and the ministry of the word.” Acts 6:2b-4

The seven picked included Stephen. Stephen did more than wait tables. He had spiritual power as well. He could talk to people and convert them to the faith.

This, I think, is a form of leadership we neglect. Our church leaders are not called to a limited ministry. Trustees are not called to only care for the building; Stewardship is not only supposed to get pledges for the next year. We are called to ministry. That ministry might be to spread the Gospel, the Good News of Jesus Christ. That spread of the Good News Gospel could be through music, charity work, or a conversation over a cup of coffee.

We might be called to be prayer warriors. There are many people in need of prayer in our church; plus, all the leaders in our community, state, nation and the world. There is always need of prayer. I hope our committees can see a spiritual part to the tasks they are set.

Pastor Brian

Youth News - Happy Valentine's Day! I would like to thank Tracee Skog and Rufus Guilford for volunteering to chaperone the Monadnock Bible Conference weekend with Youth On a Mission and missing Valentine's weekend with their families. We have 8 teens and 3 chaperones going and we are all very excited. Please pray that we each find something meaningful during the weekend to bring us closer to our understanding of God's love and to grow closer as a group.

Sunday School News - Last month we learned about the 10 Commandments. This month our unit will be How the Bible Came To Be. We would love to have new faces downstairs with the children, so feel free to come down anytime. Pat Bukoski shared with me that she was nervous about the "unknown," but after assisting in class she feels more comfortable with the idea of teaching in the future. Please let me know if you would like to come down and observe a class. The children like to see new faces.

D.U.C.K.S. are coming! We are starting to plan this year's Relay for Life. We would like to extend an invitation to anyone that would like to help in anyway. We will be having fundraisers in the upcoming months. If you have any ideas to help us reach our goal, please share your information with me. You do not need to attend the Relay to be part of our team. We will have meetings coming up soon and will let you know through announcements in future bulletins.

Here We Grow Preschool

With Valentine's Day fast approaching, happy feelings are in the air. Speaking about the air, as I sit and write for the Tidings it is only 17° outside and we are expecting a snowstorm later today. We shouldn't complain, though, the weather hasn't been too bad so far. We will continue to wait patiently for spring and all the fresh newness that comes with it.

With January almost over I am happy to say that the phone calls are starting to come in and we are setting up one-on-one tours of the school. Some new families will be joining us this upcoming school year with some past families returning. Our Open House will be on March 5th, from 12:30-2:00. At this time we do have openings in all sessions. If you know of a friend, neighbor, or relative who is looking for a preschool, please send them our way.

Continuing into the month of February, Here We Grow will be busy with "Family Movie Night" on February 7th, and Valentine parties on February 13th & 14th. The children will have the opportunity to share cards and goodies with their classmates.

Here We Grow will be selling Hebert candy bars again this year. This fundraiser will run the month of February. If you need or want a candy bar, there will be a box with Denise in the church office. Thank you for your support. All monies earned go toward field trips, special programs, equipment for the classrooms, and enrichment classes offered to the children (zumba, music, and karate).

The school will be closed for winter break from 2/17-2/21. It will be a time to catch up on rest and all those little projects that accumulate around the house.

Until next month, stay warm and be healthy.

Dawn Murphy, Director
Here We Grow Preschool

February is American Heart Month, National Cancer Prevention Month, National Children's Dental Health Month, National Senior Independence Month, and Wise Health Consumer Month. February 7th is National Wear Red Day and Give Kids a Smile Day. The 9th-15th is National Cardiac Rehabilitation Week, and the 23rd-March 1st is National Eating Disorders Week.

There are cases of Glucerna (a nutritional supplement) in the closet at the entrance of the educational wing. If you know of anyone that uses this, please help yourself. I'm also asking people in the community about this because they do have an expiration date. It would be a shame if we can't find someone that could use these. There is also medical equipment in the closet, please take what you need.

Please stay healthy and warm, and remember to wash your hands to prevent spreading germs!

God Bless!
Debbie Pranaitis, Parish Nurse

Library Tidings by Gloria Whitehead

A welcome series of 7 books gifted a while ago by Gloria Beauregard, and under the title of stories by Hope-Haven, have finally been given a circulating spot in the Adult Library. The people connected with Hope Haven Hospital have provided the base for the amazing challenges and healing power of God's grace.

Also, another gift, this one from the Woodcock's daughter, Dorothy, is some more large print books. Temporarily in storage with Christmas books are A Christmas Promise by Thomas Kinkade and Katherine Spencer, as well as A Christmas Star and A New Leaf! (same authors) There is only one reason that they disappear – SPACE. Never let that keep you from requesting “out of season.” Two more LARGE PRINT books are Jan Keron's These High Green Hills and Mitford Bedside Companion – many thanks for all.

If the door is open at the Children's Library it's more than likely open to you or the children. The method of borrowing and returning books to that library are on the cork bulletin board within the room. A sign-out sheet is on top of the shelf in front of the bulletin board - come and browse. The shelves are marked for ages and categories. Use your critical eye to survey and evaluate and then evaluate to the committee individuals.

We're a great source for entertainment when your grandchildren are coming to stay overnight. Here are a couple of reviews of books for 3 and 4 to 6 and 7 years old youngsters.

No Matter What by Debi Gliori (large book) - “I'm grim and I'm grumpy,” says Small to Large, “and I don't think you love me at all.” But, that isn't so. Large knows how to reassure Small in a tender and convincing way about a loving relationship between a parent and a child.

What Grandpas Do Best by Laura Numeroff and illustrated by Lynn Munsinger - NOW TURN THE BOOK UPSIDE DOWN to read What Grandma's Do Best, same author and illustrator. In short order the answer is made perfectly clear in what each does.

Goodnight, Goodnight Construction Site by Sherbi Durkey and Tom Lightenheld - Comments: “Delightful” – N.Y. Times; Parents will see and shout, “At last!”; Truck lovers are enthusiastic

Courtney by John Burningham - The opening line, “We would really like to have a dog,” the children said. “Our house would be much better with a dog. The dog could play with us.” And thus begins a wonderful adventure of a wonderfully illustrated cartoon-like family of mother, father, the two kids, baby and Courtney. (large book)

FUTURE CHURCH FUNDRAISERS INCLUDE:
COMMUNITY YARD SALE & CHIX BBQ ON JUNE 21ST
FALL FAIR PLANNED FOR OCTOBER 11TH

Do you have an accumulation of things that are just too good to throw away, but you no longer need? Don't have enough to hold your own yard sale? Store those items and plan to join us on the Church lot for our COMMUNITY YARD SALE on June 21st! As we've done in the past, we will rent spaces and tables, plus we'll do all the advertising, and remember, our prime location can't be beat! So, mark your calendars for June 21st and turn that “trash” into “treasure.” Look for more info to come or call Cindy Dube at 508-832-6646.

We are looking to resurrect the FALL FAIR! With the foot traffic that is generated by the annual pumpkin patch, we anticipate that a FALL FAIR on October 11th has the potential to be a huge fundraiser for the church! All we need is YOU and your ideas! In the past we had various themed tables such as crafts, jellies/jams (food items), Christmas and Halloween sections, etc. To ensure its success, the planning must begin NOW! Consider what a great opportunity this is to get to know the rest of your church family and you'll be amazed at the sense of camaraderie that results! (This is also a fun way for our youth to fulfill community service hours.)

Please contact Cindy Ryan at 508-832-3416 and let her know you're interested.
